

Can you think of your favourite memories from each class, during your time at The Wyche. This is what I call the hidden curriculum the memories that us teachers may not know anything about. I dread to think what went on in the cabins at Oakerwood.

Write down each memory from each class in full so it can be added to the memory board when you return to school.