

Pirate report

Next week we will be writing a report all about Pirates. Today you can find out information to put in your report. You will need to make notes - not long sentences - so that you can remember all the information. You will need to sort out your information into paragraphs. Here are some ideas for your paragraphs.

Don't forget that you will need an introduction that explains to the reader what the report is about and a conclusion that brings all your information together at the end.

Pirate life and rules

Pirate ships

Famous Pirates

Pirate women

Different pirate roles or jobs.

There are some pirate videos on line or some websites to help you find out information .Remember when we in class we search for information by looking for - pirates info for kids (this means the website should be suitable for children and easier to read.)
