

Now for some grammar

Before you write your log, let's practise some sentences that will help you to write like an explorer.

More detail please

★ You can add detail to your sentences by using the simple joining words and or but. For example:

1. I trudged through the dense forest and collected samples of the plant life.
2. I tried to catch a fish but they were too fast for me.

Create sentences about your jungle and add detail using and or but.

Add in 'When'

★ The log uses sentence signposts to tell the reader when something happened in the journey. The ones used in the log are known technically as 'fronted adverbials' – adverbs (or phrases beginning with adverbs) that are placed at the front of sentences to show us WHEN. These include: First, Next, After that, Then, Afterwards, After a while, Finally, When ...

For example:

1. Next, I trekked to a clearing and found a beautiful plunge pool.
2. Finally, I headed back to camp because the sun began to set.

Redraft your sentences, using fronted adverbials to show WHEN things happened.

Explain a bit more, please

★ Now try practising some sentences that will help you explain what you were doing, using because to enable you to explain.

For example: Finally, I headed back to camp because it was getting late.

Take sentences from your ideas above but try adding because to explain why you did something. Start your sentence with a fronted adverbial again. Remember, you can spin your sentence round and start with because, as well. For example:

1. First, I set out early because the jungle was far away.
2. Because the jungle was far away, the first thing I did was set out early.
3. After that, I packed my camera because I wanted to photograph the flowers.
