

This week we will be looking at money, see if you can find one of each coin and double check you know their value and their shape and size well. Add different coins and work out change. Why not play shops or post offices! Five toys make five different purchases.