

Multiplication and Division Problems

Sheet 1

Mum is making up the party bags for Bella's party. She needs to make 9 bags, each with 8 sweets. How many sweets does she need altogether?

A packet of biscuits contains 26 biscuits. There are 8 children altogether at the party, how many whole biscuits can they each have? How many are left over?

Each of the pizzas is cut into 4 slices. There are 7 pizzas, how many slices?

Sam receives £29 for his birthday. How many toy cars, each costing £3 can he afford?

Eve and Tegan are making brick towers. Each tower uses 4 bricks and they make 12 towers. How many bricks have they used?

Lucas and Dev want to make model flowers. Each flower uses 8 petals, they have 71 petals. How many flowers can they make?

Sam buys his Mum a box with 5 layers of chocolates. Each layer has 8 chocolates in it. How many are in the whole box?

Holly has 63 beads. How many bracelets, each with 10 beads on, can she make? How many beads will she have left over?