

Homophones

Homophones are words that sound the same, but have different meanings and spellings.

bury
 ↑
 To bury something is to cover it completely.

berry
 ↑
 A berry is a small fruit.
 E.g. raspberry

1 Write the homophone that matches each picture.

main → be → bare → son →

2 Circle the correct spelling of each word to complete the sentences.

- Vegetarians don't eat meet / meat.
- Where shall we meat / meet?
- I can't accept / except this.
- I like all vegetables accept / except carrots.
- Don't brake / break anything.
- Make sure you brake / break at the corner.

3 Fill in the gaps in these sentences using the correct words from the box.

there their they're

- Becky and Amber dyed hair the same colour.
- Are any biscuits left in the tin?
- Three people said coming to my party.

4 Find a homophone for each of the words below. Then find all of the words in the wordsearch.

sea →

s	e	e
---	---	---

reign →

r	a
---	---	--	--

here →

h		a
---	--	---	--

dear →

d			r
---	--	--	---

maid →

m			e
---	--	--	---

5 Write each of these words in a sentence.

- to →
- two →
- too →